Unhoused Community Members to Enjoy A BBQ Lunch at Long Beach Rescue Mission

□ longbeach • 1 day ago

Long Beach-Non-Profit Long Beach Food and Beverage Terry Henry is a homeless man and woman with more than 250 homeless men and women who will launch Long Beach Burger Week in July with five of Long Beach's top chefs and restaurant owners. Announced that he wants to serve lunch to his children on the 27th. The event is sponsored by a non-profit organization and will take place from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm on the Long Beach Rescue Mission on 1335 Pacific Avenue on Long Beach.

we recognize that many of us don't have the opportunity to eat out during Hamburger week, Henry said.

"Providing hamburger barbecue-style meals to neighbors suffering from homelessness is our way to bring them burger week and get everyone involved in the event," Henry said.

Approximately 40 restaurants will participate in the weekly event from August 1st to 8th.

The dishes served are prepared by various representatives. Harris Ranch Beef burgers, Derricks on Atlantic coleslaw, Gone Loco food truck baked beans, Northtown Bistro potato salad, Polly's Pies pie shooter and more.

"The chefs who participated felt that this was a great way to give back to the community what we were doing our best," said Vida Virgillito, owner of the GoneLoco food truck. "Cooking with love!" Check it out if you want to find a way to support long beach rescue missions and the many people they support lbrm.org.
