Qué Padre (Dylan + Jeni)

Surf-inspired Qué Padre, a new fast-casual concept from Chef Isaias Peña, has opened in Palisades Village. The varied taco flavor profiles are inspired by Peña's time spent in Sayulita, Todos Santos and Oaxaca. Menu highlights include Cochinita Pibil with habanero salsa and pickled onions from Tulum and Bohemia beer-battered halibut with chipotle aioli and jalapeño slaw. Other specialty tacos include pollo mole negro, beef birria, butter-poached lobster, nopales, and more. Diners can opt to have their tacos served traditionally with onions and cilantro, or fashioned into a bowl or salad for carb counters. The restaurant will also operate a grab-and-go window offering two limited items perfect for the morning beach rush: The 77 Breakfast Burrito with fried eggs, cheddar, bacon, sausage, hashbrowns and avocado in a flour tortilla and a cinnamon bun glazed with Mexican Chocolate.

Shappy Pretzel Co and Lincoln Beer Company are having a four-course pairing and tasting event on Saturday, July 31 beginning at 2 p.m. in their Burbank tasting room. Tickets are $20 in advance via the Lincoln Beer Company website and $22 at the door.

Saturday, July 24 is National Tequila Day and the annual Cocktail Crawl and Block Party will take place in downtown Santa Monica. Lanea, along with sister restaurant Cult, and The Craftsman on 2nd and Broadway will be celebrating with tequila, DJs, live music, and food and drink specials from 8 p.m. to 2 a.m. The $25 tickets are available HERE and include:

- Cocktail Crawl Block Party with live DJs and bands
- Two drink tickets for tequila cocktails at Cult or Lanea
- One Tequila tasting ticket
- $8 featured tequila cocktails at each location
- Additional food and drink specials
- A chance to win a Grande Fiesta Pack from Lanea containing eight tacos of your choice, chips and pico de gallo, four handmade canned cocktails, a mini piñata and two signed canned cocktails by The Chainsmokers
