The annual Long Beach Burger Week, a seven-day affair celebrating the city's creative takes on the tried and true beef-patty-on-a-bun, is slated to return for a second run on Aug. 7-14.

So far 22 restaurants, food trucks and pop-ups will be participating in the promotion, with some offering new burger entrees and most providing special deals. Many fan-favorite burger entrees will be provided at a discount, with some as low as $5. Most of the deals are priced at $10, $15, and $20 with a few restaurants offering a burger and cocktail drink combo at $25.

Some restaurants with patios will also include a Burger Week menu just for dogs, with those items priced at $5.

Participating businesses include:
